Consolidated Theatres Celebrates The 2021 Holiday Season With Special Programs And Values

HONOLULU (Nov. 26, 2021) — Consolidated Theatres, an affiliate of Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQ: RDI), is celebrating this holiday season and the return to seeing movies on the Big Screen with special programs and offers.

“As families and friends in Hawai‘i return to the Big Screen to share movies together, our Company is so thankful for its loyal guests, employees and communities. By offering a range of special programs and values, we’re celebrating a return to the Consolidated Theatre experience,” said Kyler Kokubun, Consolidated’s Marketing and Events Manager.

Exciting Holiday Movie Slate

There is something for everyone this holiday season on Consolidated’s Big Screens. Big blockbuster action movies: Spider-Man: No Way Home (December 17), The King’s Man (December 22) and The Matrix Resurrections (December 22). Films for families and kids: Encanto (on screen now) and Sing 2 (December 22). Date Night movies: West Side Story from Director Steven Spielberg (December 10) and Nightmare Alley from Director Guillermo del Toro (December 17).

Celebrate the Holidays with a Private Watch Party

For groups wanting to celebrate the holidays with just their family and friends, Consolidated Theatres is now offering Private Watch Parties at its venues in Koko Marina, Pearlridge and Mililani. Guests can visit ConsolidatedTheatres.com and instantly book a private auditorium to watch one of this year’s newest films and select classic holiday favorites with up to 30 friends and family.

Pajama Party at Olino

In early December, the Pajama Party series starts at ‘Olino by Consolidated Theatres. Families and Kids are encouraged to wear their comfiest pajamas to ‘Olino and enjoy classic holiday family films on the Big Screen, while enjoying hot chocolate and cookies.
