HONOLULU--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Consolidated Theatres, an affiliate of Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQ: RDI), is continuing to invest in Hawaii communities, with a renovation double feature in the works at two of its key venues. The renovated Consolidated Theatres at Kahala Mall will reopen November 5, 2021, with renovations at Consolidated Theatres at Kapolei Entertainment Centre expected to be completed before the end of 2021. Building upon Consolidated Theatres' reputation of delivering entertainment excellence in Hawaii for over a century, design elements and amenities at each venue will enhance guests' movie-going experiences with a focus on memorable food, comfort, and safety.

"While it is a challenging time for global exhibitors, Consolidated Theatres has creatively engaged with audiences while always keeping the safety and well-being of our guests as our paramount concern, and our guests have responded in kind with wonderful support," said Rod Tengan, Division Manager. "As the industry begins to rebound with new movies, and our guests return to the Big Screen to watch films as they are meant to be seen, we look forward to unveiling these beautifully renovated spaces in Kahala and Kapolei - and hope this commitment to guest experience across our island communities speaks volumes about our gratitude."

- Along with traditional concessions like popcorn, soda and candy, an innovative menu featuring gourmet burgers, salads and a new pupu menu crafted by in-house Consolidated chefs.
- A new beverage menu of local craft beers on tap and in cans, select wines and a range of bottled cocktails, together with coffee and espresso drinks prepared with beans from well-regarded Honolulu Coffee.
- Reserved seating available from ConsolidatedTheatres.com, the Consolidated app or kiosks available in Kahala Mall.

When it re-opens its doors this Friday, November 5, Consolidated Theatres at the Kahala Mall will proudly present Hawai'i International Film Festival (HIFF) programming. For its debut weekend, the theatre in Kahala will also feature ETERNALS, the latest entry in the Marvel Cinematic Universe. Starring Angelina Jolie, Gemma Chan, Richard Madden, Kumail Nanjiani, Lauren Ridloff, Brian Tyree Henry, Salma Hayek, Lia McHugh, Don Lee, and Kit Harrington, ETERNALS features an exciting new team of Super Heroes - ancient aliens who have been living on Earth in secret for thousands of years.
