

Consolidated Theatres Announces Exciting Renovation Plans for Kahala Location

11/27/2019

Kahala concession sales through December 1 to benefit Kalani High School
Temporary closure to commence on December 2

Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQCM: RDI) announced today that its Consolidated Theatres' Kahala location will be temporarily closed, beginning December 2, to embark on an exciting new renovation. The 8-screen complex will feature recliner seating throughout, and the interior spaces will be refreshed to enhance the entire moviegoing experience. A new state-of-the-art kitchen will allow Consolidated to offer a new chef-curated food and drink menu, creating a true "dinner and a movie" experience.

The community can continue to enjoy movies and concessions at Kahala through December 1. During this time, a portion of the concession stand proceeds will benefit Kalani High School.

Consolidated Theatres gift cards will continue to be on sale at the box office throughout the holiday season, providing added convenience for consumers to pick up the perfect stocking stuffer.

"As we prepare for the renovation process, we wish to extend a big 'mahalo' to our Kahala audiences for choosing to enjoy the magic of movies with us," said Rod Tengan, Consolidated Theatres division manager. "We can't wait to welcome you back with premium comfort and an exciting new chef-inspired menu."

To ensure moviegoers don't miss a single frame of their favorite upcoming films, as well as Consolidated Theatres' celebrated signature programming, Kahala audiences are invited to enjoy Consolidated Theatres' Koko Marina location throughout the renovation. The Koko Marina location features not only $6 endless popcorn and $8.50 movie tickets for every movie, all day, every day, for guests of all ages, but also Sunday Family Day with $10 family-friendly snack packs for all to enjoy.

Consolidated Theatres' upgrades will create the perfect ambiance for cinephiles. The updated Kahala theater is projected to re-open in spring 2020. Additional details on the renovation will be announced at a later date.
