Angelika Film Center Unveils New Membership Experience for Film Lovers

11/19/2026

Premium Membership launches just in time for the holidays

NEW YORK, Nov. 19, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Angelika Film Center & Cafe, the first name in arthouse cinema, and its sister theater, Village East Cinemas, affiliates of Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQ: RDI), are rolling out the red carpet for audiences this holiday season with a new addition to its membership program.

On Wednesday, November 18, 2026, a new Premium Membership program was introduced. Priced at $15.99 per month, the new program upgrades the Angelika experience to include one movie ticket each month eligible any day for all formats including 35MM, 70MM, and 3D films. Premium members also unlock more savings with access to four discounted tickets per month, priced at $15.99 each, that they can share with friends and family, 50% off movie tickets every Tuesday and Wednesday, a monthly Mystery Perk, and more. Additionally, Premium Membership includes all the perks available in the Free Membership, such as points for every dollar spent, which can be redeemed for movie tickets or food and beverages (alcohol excluded).

When film lovers sign up for the new Premium Membership online, they will be greeted with a free large welcome popcorn and free refill. Current members of the Free Membership may log into their current account and upgrade to Premium. No deletion or restart is required, and they will also receive the welcome popcorn and refill.

“Our membership program has always been a crowd pleaser, and we're now introducing an enhanced membership providing our guests the star treatment,” said Vice President of Operations, Scott Rosemann. “We’re excited to invite audiences into a next-level experience as we head into the holiday movie season and a new year of cinema excellence.”

Angelika Guests can choose the program that best fits their film-watching needs:
