Item 5.01 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Item 5.02(b): Retirement of Chief Financial Officer.

Devasis “Dev” Ghose retired as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Reading International, Inc. (the Registrant) on January 23, 2019. Mr. Ghose has agreed to continue as an advisor to the Registrant for a further year.

Item 5.02(c): Appointment of Chief Financial Officer.

Gilbert Avanes has been appointed Interim Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Registrant, effective January 24, 2019.

Mr. Avanes (45) has been an employee of and consultant to the Registrant for more than the past ten years, most recently serving as Vice President of Financial Planning and Analysis (January 2016 to present). Prior thereto, Mr. Avanes served as the Registrant’s Senior Director of Financial Planning and Analysis (January 2012 to December 2015), and as a consultant and then Senior Finance Manager (August 2007 to December 2011). Except for his services as an employee and prior to that as a consultant, and the compensation he has received for such services, neither Mr. Avanes, nor any entity in which he has a material interest, has engaged, directly or indirectly, in any transactions with the Registrant or any of its affiliates.

Mr. Avanes is a Certified Public Accountant (US) and Chartered Professional Accountant (Canada) and has a Master of Business Administration from Laurentian University and a Bachelor of Commerce (Major in Accounting and Minor in Finance) from Ryerson University.

This is the first time that Mr. Avanes has served as the chief financial officer and treasurer of a public company. In light of this fact, he has been appointed on an “interim” basis. It is anticipated that over the next three to six months, the Registrant’s Board of Directors (the Board) will review Mr. Avanes’ performance, and make a determination whether or not his appointment should be made permanent.

Mr. Avanes current salary is $200,000 per year. In 2018, he received a discretionary bonus of $50,000 and was issued restricted stock units and stock options under the Registrant’s 2010 Stock Incentive Plan in relation to the 2017 services, covering 836 restricted stock units and 3,609 stock options of the Issuer’s Class A Common Stock. Both the restricted stock units and the stock options vest 25% each year on April 12, 2019, April 12, 2020, April 12, 2021 and April 12, 2022, respectively. Mr. Avanes is also the beneficial owner of 733 shares of the Issuer’s Class A Common Stock.

It is anticipated that a new compensation package will be negotiated with Mr. Avanes, but this has not yet been done. Any such compensation package must be approved by the Registrant’s Compensation and Stock Options Committee, comprised entirely of independent directors. Mr. Avanes also has a pre-existing indemnification agreement with the Registrant in the form customarily granted to similarly situated employees, and is entitled to participate in the Company’s health, benefit and retirement plans, as generally described in the Registrant’s Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 10, 2018. Mr. Avanes is an “at will” employee, serves at the pleasure of the Registrant’s Board and may be removed from office at any time by the Board in its sole discretion.

Mr. Avanes has no family relationship with any other executive officer or any director of the Registrant.

None of the following has occurred with respect to Mr. Avanes in the last ten years:

- (1) A petition under the Federal bankruptcy laws or any state insolvency law was filed by or against, or a receiver, fiscal agent or similar officer was appointed by a court for the business or property of such person, or any partnership in which he was a general partner at or within two years before the time of such filing, or any corporation or business association of which he was an executive officer at or within two years before the time of such filing;
