PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Reading International, Inc. (the “Company”) has determined that it will not be able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year end December 31, 2020 (the “Form 10-K”) by March 16, 2021, the original due date for such filing, without unreasonable effort or expense due primarily to delays resulting from the need of the Company to focus its administrative resources on addressing the positive challenges presented by the earlier than anticipated reopening of its domestic cinemas as the jurisdictions in which it operates in the United States remove or reduce restrictions on the operation of motion picture venues, the advancement of negotiations with its relevant stakeholders in light of such earlier than anticipated reopenings, and the adjustment of its business plan and strategy and liquidity forecasts in light of such earlier than anticipated reopenings. This situation is exacerbated by the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Company expects to file its Form 10-K within the extension period of 15 calendar days, as provided under Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

- (1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Gilbert Avanes

(Name)

(213)

(Area Code)

235-2240

(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that significant changes in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the statements of operations to be included in the Form 10-K. The Company's preliminary unaudited results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 are as follows:

	Year Ended
	December 31,
	2020	2019
(Dollars in thousands, except per share data)
Total revenues	$ 77,862	$276,768
Net income (loss) attributable to Reading International, Inc. common shareholders	$(65,200)	$(26,429)
Basic earnings (loss) per share attributable to Reading International, Inc. shareholders	$ (3.00)	$ (1.17)
Diluted earnings (loss) per share attributable to Reading International, Inc. shareholders	$ (3.00)	$ (1.17)

The financial results presented above reflect preliminary estimates of the Company's results of operations as of the date of this filing. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm has not audited or reviewed, and does not express an opinion with respect to, this preliminary data. These estimates may be subject to change upon the completion of the reporting process and audit of the Company's financial statements, and actual results may vary from these estimates.

The above changes in results of operation are attributable principally to the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic that are disclosed in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2020.

Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as: "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "preliminary" and similar references to future periods. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the Company's expectations relating to the filing of its Form 10-K and the results of the ongoing review. Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they represent the Company's current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding anticipated events and trends affecting its business and industry based on information available as of the time such statements are made. Investors are cautioned that such forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which cannot be predicted with accuracy and some of which may be outside of the Company's control. The Company's actual results and financial condition may differ materially from those indicated in these forward-looking statements. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements. Important factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, a material delay in the Company's financial reporting, including the possibility that the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-K within the fifteen-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and the possibility that the ongoing review may identify errors or control deficiencies in the Company's accounting practices. We disclaim and do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement in this filing, except as required by applicable law or regulation.
