Reading International Provides Update on Form 10-K Filing

Los Angeles, California, March 30, 2016 – Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQ: RDI) (“Reading” or the “Company”) announced today that the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 would not occur until after the extended March 30, 2016 deadline.

On March 15, 2016, Reading International filed a Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 (the “Form 12b-25”), indicating that the filing of its Form 10-K would be delayed. The Company continues to work diligently with its independent auditor Grant Thornton and tax advisor Deloitte to complete the preparation of its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015. The delay in filing is the result of management’s need for additional time to complete its thorough review of the appropriate accounting treatment for certain complex income tax matters. The Company estimates that it will be in a position to file its Form 10-K on or around April 30, 2016. This estimate of time is subject to continuing review and may be revised as necessary.

It is not anticipated that any significant change in results of operations (before tax) from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof. The matters under review relate to timing differences for certain adjustments to the Company’s tax accounts and do not impact net income before taxes.

As a result of the filing delay, Reading expects to receive a notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) indicating that it is not currently in compliance with NASDAQ Listing Rule 5250(c)(1). Under NASDAQ Listing Rules, the Company expects to be granted 60 calendar days to submit a plan to NASDAQ to regain compliance with the Listing Rules by filing its Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2015. If the plan is accepted, NASDAQ can grant an exception of up to 180 calendar days for the Company to regain compliance. Reading believes that this notice and the Company’s non-compliance with NASDAQ Listing Rule 5250(c)(1) will have no immediate effect on the listing or trading of Reading’s common stock on the NASDAQ Capital Market.
